Norms and Instructions to be observed in the Celebration of the Holy Eucharist

Please always make sure to arrive early before the Mass starts. If, for unavoidable situation you arrive late, that is ok, but don't make it a habit to arrive late in the Mass.(Weekend Masses)

The norms in receiving communion (the Body and Blood of Christ) are STANDING. This comes from the General Instruction of the roman Missal (GIRM) with U.S adaptations: "The norm for reception of Holy Communion in the dioceses of the United States is Standing." (GIRM, no. 160, U.S. adaptation). Why STANDING is the norm? Standing is understood as a posture of reverence and resurrection; it also promotes order and flow in the Communion procession. ((We are to follow what is being observed and practiced at the Cathedral of the Madeleine, our mother church)

Non-Catholics are not allowed to receive Communion.

In receiving Communion either by the mouth or by the hand, please do not forget to say the word "Amen" after the minister says "the Body of Christ"; and if you are to receive the Body of Christ by the hand, the proper way is to place your left hand over your right hand

If you are not properly disposed to receive Communion and wish to receive a blessing from the minister, please place your arms above your chest so that the minister will know

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A

Gospel Reading
Matthew 4:12-23

Jesus begins to preach in Galilee and calls his first disciples. (shorter form Matthew 4:12-17)

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today’s Gospel describes the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry. In the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke (called the Synoptic Gospels), Jesus’ public ministry begins after his baptism by John the Baptist and after his retreat to the desert where he was tempted by the devil. When Jesus returns from the desert, he hears that John has been arrested.

The first part of today’s Gospel places Jesus’ ministry in the context of the writings of the prophet, Isaiah. Matthew wants to show that Jesus is the fulfillment of the prophecies given to the people of Israel, and he refers to Isaiah to do so. Isaiah says that the Messiah will begin his ministry in Galilee, the land of the Gentiles. When Jesus begins to preach in Galilee, Matthew points to his ministry as a fulfillment of Isaiah’s prophecy, proof that Jesus is the Messiah.

When Jesus called his first disciples, the Gospel tells us that the fishermen (Peter and Andrew, James and John) dropped everything to follow Jesus immediately. Yet this Gospel tells us little about the prior experience that the fishermen had of Jesus. Did they know him? Had they heard him preach? What kind of person must Jesus have been to invoke such a response? We can imagine that Jesus was a powerful presence to elicit a response as immediate and complete as these first disciples gave.

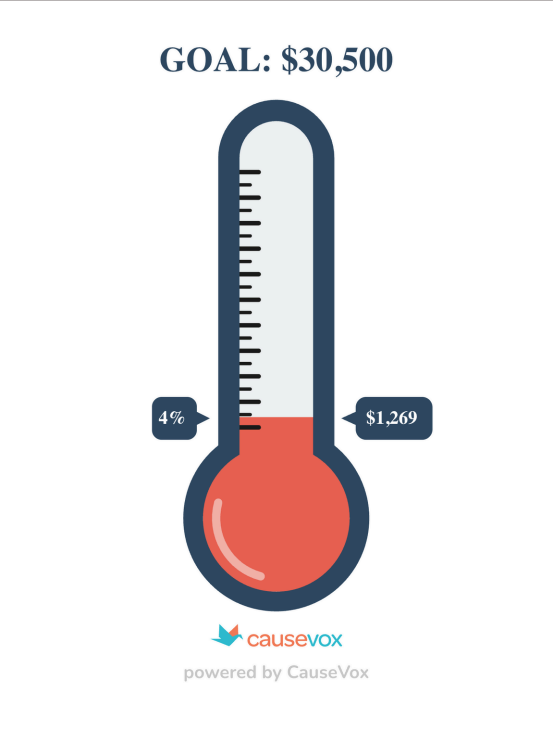

The Gospel concludes with a description of the ministry that Jesus begins in Galilee. Jesus inaugurates the Kingdom of God with his work. He teaches in the synagogue and preaches the kingdom. His ability to cure people’s diseases and illness is a sign of the kingdom. In Jesus’ ministry, we already begin to see the Kingdom of God among us.
